A Fool Once More.

"For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her, and I used up a small fortune in buying medicine. Six months ago I saw a United States flag with Hop Bitters on it, and I thought I would be a fool and try it. I tried it, but my wife proved to be a fool. Two bottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife, and it cost me only two dollars. Such folly pays,"—[H. W., Detroit, Mich.]
